

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 5 Immigration Web Quest!

Welcome to your Immigration Web Quest. This packet is meant to be guided notes for you to use while going through the Web Quest. Make sure to still read all of the information and look at all of the images. If you prefer to take your own notes in your notebook that is fine as well, but remember there will be checkpoints along the way to test your understanding, so pay attention! If you do choose to take your own notes you must hand them in after you've completed the Web Quest, but you will get them back tomorrow.

When you're ready, click 'Start' at the bottom of the page

Part I: Native American History

In your own words, give a detailed definition of a Native American.

Click 'Tribes'
Click 'Apache'

The Apache tribe settled in _____ and had conflicts with the _____.
The Apache Wars was a time period when

In 1875, United States military forced the removal of the Apache. The people were held in internment for _____ years while white settlers took over their land. The Apache's main food sources were _____, _____, _____, and _____.

Click 'Back to Tribes'

Click 'Cherokee'

The Cherokee tribe settled in _____ and was the first non-European ethnic group to gain _____.

Who is Sequoyah?

Click 'Back to Tribes'

Click 'Iroquois'

The Iroquois tribe is from present-day _____.

List the Five Nations

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

The _____ is the decentralized political and diplomatic entity that emerged in response to European colonization, and still exists today. The main crops cultivated by the Iroquois were _____, _____, and _____, also known as the “Three Sisters.”

Click 'Back to Tribes'

Click 'Navajo'

The Navajo are natives of _____. Men and women had different roles in Navajo society. Men _____ while women _____

A _____ is a traditional earth house made of a special wood framework packed with clay into a domed shape.

Click 'Back to Tribes'

Click 'Sioux'

The Sioux Native American tribe is also known as the _____ which means "the allies." Although the Sioux traveled freely, the original Sioux homelands were in present-day _____

Describe the different clothing styles of Sioux men, women, and chiefs:

Click 'Back to Tribes'

Complete the Native American Word Search. Once completed to the best of your ability, print it and turn it in with your notes. You may then click the back button to return to the Web Quest.

When you're ready, click 'Discovery of the "New World"'

Part II: Discovery and Settlement

Before the discovery of the Americas, people believed that the world was _____.

What was Christopher Columbus actually looking for?

Who financed Christopher Columbus? _____

Why did Christopher Columbus name the peoples that he encountered "Indians"? Who were they really? _____

Click 'The First Colonists'

The first permanent settlement in North America was the English colony at _____ in 1607. As more and more people arrived in the New World, more and more disputes arose over territory. Many wars were fought in the 1600s and 1700s. Soon, the two countries with the largest presence were _____ and

_____. The two nations fought for control of North America in what Americans call the _____.

Who won this war? _____

As more and more Americans voiced their concerns over _____, a conflict began to build, leading to the _____ War.

Print out and complete the Discovery and Settlement Quiz. You must turn this quiz in with your notes. Once completed to the best of your ability, return to the Web Quest.

Click 'Immigration Summary'

Part III: Immigration

The four major waves of immigration in the United States are:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Click 'Ellis Island'

Ellis Island is located _____ and was open from _____ to _____.

Today, over _____% of America's population can trace their ancestry through Ellis Island.

Click 'Immigrant Life'

List three reasons why immigrants chose to leave their homelands and come to the United States.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

